Peggy's Cove and Lunenburg

Saturday, May 13, 2023

Minimum of 16 participants required.

TIME: 9:15 am – 4:30 pm
(7-hour guided tour by bus, lunch not included)

COST: $109.20 + HST +
$2.25 booking fee

DEPARTURE: Tour departs from
Halifax Marriott Harbourfront Hotel

En route to this seaside village pass-by the Halifax Public Gardens, a quiet oasis amid a cosmopolitan city; see the Citadel National Historic Site, a fort perched high above the city; the Old Town Clock, a gift given to the city by Prince Edward the Duke of Kent in 1803; as well as other notable landmarks such as Province House, the naval dockyards and the famous Halifax waterfront boardwalk. As you travel along the winding coastal highway of the Lighthouse Route to the tiny fishing village of Peggy's Cove, it is little wonder it has been an inspiration for artists and an irresistible lure for budding and seasoned adventurers for generation after generation. The colorful houses and fishing shacks perched atop the solid stone rocky outcrop that overlooks the restless waters of the Atlantic exhibit the wear and tear of the ocean and its punishing storms. Yet they endure, much like the small population of approximately 32 people who are year-round residents.

These quaint neighboring towns located in Nova Scotia's South Shore are brimming with histories that date back to the 18th century. Designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Lunenburg is a warm and welcoming host to guests eager to discover the many treasures and places of interest within the community. Guests may choose to learn more about the town of the Bluenose II, while accompanied by a local guide, or dive deeper into Lunenburg's fishing industry during a visit to the Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic. A quick drive to Mahone Bay and you'll be welcome to explore the scenic and hospitable community which offers a plethora of shopping, charming cafés, and copious photo opportunities of the town views and especially of the iconic Three Churches. Travel to, from, and between these towns will be provided by the accommodating team from Ambassatours Gray Line who will share informative and intriguing stories including the Oak Island mystery, rum running, privateers, and more.
