6:00 – 9:30 PM	NETWORKING DINNER EVENT: Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21 NOTE: Not included in conference registration fee – separate registration/fee of $85 applies.
	NOTE: Cost: $85/person, not included in conference registration Enjoy an incredible meal with CAPS-I and industry colleagues at the Canadian Museum of Immigration at Pier 21. Dress code: Business casual Greetings from the Honourable Ava Czapalay, Deputy Minister of the Department of Labour, Skills and Immigration of Nova Scotia Delegates will have an opportunity to visit 2 permanent exhibits: 1) The Canadian Immigration Story where delegates will witness the challenge and triumph, the joy and injustice experienced by newcomers to Canada in the past and in the present as well as learn about the vast contributions immigrants have made to Canada. 2) The Pier 21 Story where delegates will step into the past and experience what it was like to immigrate to Canada through Pier 21. From the ship you sailed on, to customs and immigration in Halifax, to the train you took to your final destination, discover the past housed in the walls of our National Historic Site. TRACE YOUR ROOTS! If your family arrived in Canada through Pier 21 between 1865 and 1935, the Scotiabank Family History Centre has access to a variety of databases which can aid in the location of records from this era. You may find it more interesting if you 'trace your roots' in advance of your visit to the museum. Further details at: https://pier21.ca/immigration-records/scotiabank-family-history-centre Submit a request: https://pier21.ca/immigration-records/between-1865-and-1935 FAQ's: https://pier21.ca/immigration-records/frequently-asked-questions NOTE: Unfortunately chances of finding an immigration document for someone arriving in Canada before 1865 are low. Access to Immigration records after 1935 is restricted in accordance with the Canadian Privacy Act, are currently held in Ottawa by IRCC and not available to the SFHC or the general public.